PETITION TO REVIVE UNINTENTIONALLY ABANDONED APPLICATION

Commissioner for Patents
Mail Stop PETITION
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313

Dear Sir:

Applicant requests revival of the above-captioned application, currently regarded as abandoned, for unintentionally failing to submit a Request for Continued Examination concurrently with the Response to Final Office Action dated July 8, 2009.

On December 18, 2009, Applicant submitted a Response to Final Office Action dated July 8, 2009 stating that Applicant was also submitting a Request for Continued Examination and a petition for an extension of time. Applicant did pay the fee for the extension of time but inadvertently did not attach the Request for Continued Examination concurrently with the filing of the Response to Final Office Action.

Applicant submits herewith a copy of the original Response to Final Office Action electronically filed on December 18, 2009, which serves as the 37 C.F.R. §1.114(c) submission and a Request for Continued Examination and states that the entire delay in filing this paper from the due date for this paper until the filing of a grantable petition

Certificate of Electronic Transmission Under 37 CFR §1.8: I hereby certify that this correspondence is being transmitted to the United States Patent and Trademark Office using the EFS-Web System on February 3, 2010.
